Linowitz Elected to Time Board

Sol M. Linowitz, former U.S. ambassador to the Organization of American States and a top Xerox executive, has been elected a member of the board of directors of Time Inc. Linowitz is currently a senior partner in the international law firm of Coudert Brothers. Linowitz had been a leading participant in the growth of Xerox since 1947. He served as the firm's executive committee chairman and general counsel before becoming board chairman. Linowitz was appointed OAS ambassador in 1966 by President Johnson and remained in the post until last May 1. He also served as U.S. representative on the Inter-American Committee for the Alliance for Progress.
